After months of campaigning, our petition for affordable housing will be tabled and discussed in the NSW Parliament.

The Theatrette
NSW Parliament
Macquarie St Sydney
Thursday 3 August 2017
2:45-6pm

As Members of Parliament discuss our affordable housing recommendation we will be in the Viewing Gallery showing our support.

Thanks to your efforts through the St Vincent de Paul Society NSW Right to Home campaign, over 16,300 people across NSW have signed our petition for more affordable housing.

We asked that wherever there is a new major development, at least 15% be set aside for affordable housing.

It is time the Parliament changes our laws and delivers housing for all.

Some important details

- 2:45pm: please be here by then to allow time for security checks to get into Parliament. You will require a form of Government issued photo ID, such as a driver's license or passport.
- 3-4pm: gather in the Theatrette to discuss the campaign with supportive MPs.
Stay tuned for more details about speakers.
- 4pm: enter the Viewing Gallery of the Legislative Assembly to watch the discussion live.
Afterwards: join us for refreshments in the Theatrette.

Dress code: smart casual (Parliamentary rules prohibit wearing any campaign material).
