

You are invited... to a reception and conversation with Fr Sean McDonagh on...

Bringing Laudato Si' To Life: From Vision to Action

The actions of priests and parish-workers, including educators, is key to involving parishioners in implementing Pope Francis' vision of a new relationship between God, the earth and humanity (Laudato Si' #240). His vision of integral ecology is addressed to all peoples and Catholics alike.

Fr McDonagh was one of many consultants in the drafting of Laudato Si' in 2015. He has recently participated in discussions at the Vatican on the encyclical's implementation.

Familiar with practical ways that work in parishes, Fr McDonagh is keen to hear from local priests and parish workers about their actions to implement Laudato Si'. He hopes that a network of people and resources will emerge from this conversation.

Date: Friday November 11, 2016

Time: 1:00pm (for 1:30pm start) - 3:30pm

Where: Australian Catholic University, Level 16,
Tenison Woods House 8-20 Napier St, North Sydney NSW 2060
(short walk from North Sydney Station).

RSVP: November 3, 2016

Columban Mission Institute, North Sydney, NSW 2059
(02) 9352 8000 cmi@columban.org.au

Fr Sean McDonagh SSC

Organised by the St Columbans Mission Society
In partnership with Australian Catholic University
Catholic Earthcare Australia
Justice and Peace Office, Archdiocese of Sydney
Earthkin, Sisters of Mercy Parramatta